

THE STRONGHOLD CLIMBING GYM

CAMP COUNSELOR POSITION

The Stronghold is looking to bring on more Camp Counselors! The Stronghold's camp programs generally run during LAUSD's school breaks. We host kids, ages ranging from 6 - 14, from all different areas of Los Angeles. Some kids are new to climbing, while others may have already been climbing for years! We provide a well-rounded program to keep the kids active and having lots of fun.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Supervise and instruct campers.
  - Provide climbing instruction, adapting coaching strategies to suit each child's needs, goals, and current skill level.
  - Collaborate in designing and implementing activities and games that engage the kids and help them to develop climbing skills.
  - Educate and enforce practices that minimize the risk of injuries and accidents.
  - Enforce gym safety rules.
  - Help decrease the impact of the campers on members' experience in the gym.
  - Facilitate respectful and supportive interactions among campers.
  - Create a positive and fun learning environment.
- Collaborate with fellow coaches during camp sessions.
- Attend any training hosted by the Camp Director before camp sessions.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Availability during the camp periods (Monday through Friday for the 6-hour camp day and possible early drop-off or late pick-up supervision).
- Experience working with kids (bonus if the experience is in a climbing gym).
- Climbing experience and skills (coaches must be belay-certified at The Stronghold or able to pass a belay certification test).
- Passion for teaching and instilling a love of climbing in others.
- Effective communication and collaboration skills.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS:

- $21.80/hour
- Free gym membership and pro-deals during time of employment.
- Possibility to combine this role with other work at the gym.
